

Plan for the whole family

A fillable worksheet to use before comparing multigenerational villas.

01 THE GROUP

Start with people, dates and the limits the right villa must respect.

Destination or area

Travel dates / flexible dates

Adults / couples

Children / ages

Bedrooms / budget

Pets? Number, size and any needs

Smoking / vaping needs and villa rules

02 BEDROOMS THAT WORK

List each household or group; confirm actual beds, room placement and bathrooms.

HOUSEHOLD / GUESTS	BEDS / CRIB / SOFA BED	ROOM LOCATION / BATH

Ask for a current labeled floor plan. Confirm occupancy limits and any detached bedrooms.

03 ACCESS & CHILDREN

Identify non-negotiables before touring villa photographs.

Steps, elevator, shower, walking distance or mobility requirements

Pool barrier, stairs, balconies, crib / high chair and child-room proximity

Top three priorities for this particular family

Use page 2 to compare written answers for up to two properties.

Compare the real experience

Get property-specific answers in writing before paying a deposit.

04 VET EACH PROPERTY

Beachfront, accessible and fully staffed are starting points, not verified inclusions.

Beach and pool conditions for the ages in your group; pool barriers / heating

Access route: bedroom to bathroom, dining area, pool, car and beach

Included staff, hours and after-hours contact; chef meals and service days

Childcare / guides: available, vetted by whom, cost and booking lead time

Groceries, provisioning fees, dining costs, gratuities and extra staffing

05 COMPARE TWO VILLAS

Put both proposals on the same basis, including mandatory fees and staffing.

06 AFTER A VILLA IS SHORTLISTED

Confirm meal rhythm and sensitive needs privately with the villa team.

Preferred breakfast / dinner times

Dietary needs to discuss privately

For serious allergies, confirm ingredients and cross-contact handling directly with the chef.

Ask for the rental agreement, line-item quote and confirmed service schedule.
